CAPTIVATING AUDIENCES AT TRADITIONS

Creating new traditions for families at Heathwood's community in Milton.

Heathwood Homes' Sales Centre at Traditions in Milton was transformed into an inviting haunt for Halloween, where guests were treated to spooky storytelling to kick off their adventures.

Kids having fun in the Sales Centre is a common occurrence at Traditions, where Heathwood is building a sense of belonging for residents by offering the facility as a neighbourhood meeting place. Already home to hundreds of families, Traditions is now in Phase II, with luxurious townhomes and semis available, priced from $330,900. Plus a limited selection of detached homes available on 43-foot lots. Ask about quick move-in homes priced from just $349,900.
